

PERUVIAN EXPORTS TO THAILAND RECORDS HIGHEST GROWTH OF THE YEAR

In July 2018, Peruvian exports to Thailand amounted to US$ 15 million, growing 108% compared to the same month of 2017, the highest growth registered of this year. Thus, in the first seven months of 2018, export reached US$ 76 million, accumulating a growth of 12%, due to the largest shipments of quinoa (+ 94%), scrap steel (+ 70%), squid (+ 58%), molybdenum (+ 57%) and zinc (+ 34%), which accounted for almost 80% of the total exported. 130 Peruvian companies made shipments to Thailand. It is important to note that the Free Trade Agreement (“Early Harvest”) between Peru and Thailand has been in force since December 2011.

Exports to Thailand
(% Interannual variation)

